Complaints Resolution

The IG complaints program is here to help you. You have the right to communicate with anyone, at any level, but give your unit/squadron a chance.

First - Talk to your immediate supervisor

Second - Talk to your First Sergeant

Third - Talk to your Squadron Commander

Last - Talk to me, your Inspector General

- Complaints are dealt with fairly, quickly, and confidentially.

- Your identity is protected when requested

- No one can take or threaten to take an unfavorable personnel action or withhold a favorable personnel action for talking to the IG.

Fraud, Waste, and Abuse (FWA)

Elements - Prevention/detection of FWA

Goals - Prevent FWA, detect and prosecute FWA practices (to protect the loss of resources)

Role - USAF's focal point for preventing FWA

Involves - The success of the program lies with each individual within the Air Force.

- Individuals reporting FWA disclosures should make every possible effort to provide factual, unbiased, and specific information which can help expedite investigation, if one is required.
