INTRODUCTION

This pamphlet is intended to provide a general overview concerning the rights, protection, assistance, and possible court process of victims and/or witnesses of a crime. Commanders, law enforcement personnel, OSI agents, and supervisors who believe a military member, dependent, or Air Force employee is a victim of or a witness to a crime should refer the individual to 354 FW/JA, 377-4114, for an interview and briefing with the Victim Liaison.

DEFINITIONS TO KNOW

VICTIM: A person that has suffered direct, or threatened, physical, emotional, or financial harm as a result of the commission of a crime.

WITNESS: A person who has information or evidence concerning a crime

SERIOUS OFFENSE: A criminal offense that involves personal violence, attempted or threatened personal violence, or significant property loss.

PROSECUTOR/TRIAL COUNSEL: The Judge Advocate in charge of the case, who will be acting as the trial attorney during any judicial proceeding.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The Air Force or civilian lawyer who represents the member accused of committing the offense.

RIGHTS OF CRIME VICTIMS

1. The right to be treated with fairness, dignity and respect.
2. The right to be reasonably protected from the accused.

3. The right to be notified of court proceedings.
4. The right to confer with trial counsel in the case.
5. The right to be present all public court-martial proceedings unless the military judge determines the victim's testimony would be materially affected if the victim heard other testimony.
6. The right to information about the conviction, sentencing, imprisonment, and release of the offender.
7. The right to receive the Record of Trial, when applicable.
8. The right to have a Special Victim's Counsel, when applicable.
9. The right to restitution, when applicable.

PROTECTING A WITNESS/VICTIM

The Legal Office at Eielson AFB prosecutes Air Force members who have committed crimes punishable under the Uniform Code of Military Justice. It is a Federal offense to threaten, intimidate, harass, or mislead a victim or witness in a criminal proceeding or investigation. When appropriate, steps will be taken to protect victims and witnesses from intimidation and threats. If anyone threatens you or if you feel you're being harassed because of your contribution to the case, immediately notify the Judge Advocate in charge of the case in the Legal Office or the Air Force agency investigating the offense(s).

CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

You are entitled to understand what is happening in the case in which you are involved. There are many steps to a court-martial and you may be contacted by the judge advocate assigned to the case or the accused's lawyer regarding the various stages of the military justice process.

Even though you may be asked for your cooperation in a case by the prosecution, witnesses do not belong to either side of a criminal case. It is proper for the defense lawyer to contact you about your testimony in the case. More specific detail concerning the court-martial process will be provided by trial counsel or victim liaison.

If a victim or witness of a serious offense requests, they can be notified in advance, if possible, of the apprehension of the accused, the pretrial release of the accused, and the accused's trial or entry of a guilty plea and the sentencing proceeding. Please provide the Victim Liaison at the Legal Office with a current address or telephone number and the events you would like to be notified about. Also, any requests for release of investigative reports or other documents may be processed in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act. Again, please contact the Eielson AFB Victim Liaison if you have such a request.

LOSSES RESULTING FROM CRIME

Crime may mean a real financial loss for the victim. Perhaps you have had cash or valuable property stolen and not recovered, had damage to your property, incurred medical expenses not covered by the Air Force, or had a loss of income because you could not work. If any of these things have happened to you and you do not have insurance which will cover the loss, then you can contact Legal Office to determine whether you may be eligible to file a claim. If not, there may be other possible ways to recover your losses – restitution, civil litigation, or Transitional Compensation for Abused Dependents.

CONCLUSION

We hope this pamphlet has addressed some concerns and questions you may have had. The success of our military justice system depends on the willingness of victims and witnesses to get involved.
